Law enforcement is a big field with little opportunity for young people and that's a problem. Now there is a solution, the Boston Police Department Cadet Program.

A program that after two years of service gives a cadet top priority for consideration as a Boston Police Officer.

Boston Police Cadet Program

The Cadet Program is a big opportunity for those who answer yes to these questions:

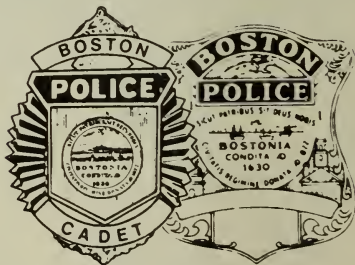

1. Would you like a distinct advantage in gaining employment as a Boston Police Officer as a result of being a cadet?
2. Are you between the ages of 18 and 22?
3. Would you like a position with sick leave benefits?
4. Would you like to earn $192.85 per week?
5. Do you have a high school diploma or equivalency certificate?
6. Would you like to be paid while in training?
7. Are you without any felony convictions?
8. Would you like 13 paid holidays a year?
9. Are you a resident of Boston?
10. Would you like coverage under Workman's Compensation?

If you answered yes to all these questions, apply immediately for a chance to work in one of the most demanding and exciting fields in law enforcement.

The Boston Police Department wants and needs qualified young people to join its ranks.

You could be one of them!
